

ISLAM, DEMOCRACY AND GOOD GOVERNANCE IN INDONESIA 6 - 8 OCTOBER 2009, SEMARANG, INDONESIA

This conference aims to investigate how Muslim scholars and intellectuals deal with the concept of democracy and good governance in post-New Order Indonesia from a conceptual and Islamic theological perspective. Moreover, it will go into the issue of how these theoretical reflections are used on an operational level in order to legitimise or criticise the existing political culture in Indonesia.

We invite you to submit paper abstracts for this conference. You are also welcome to send in panel proposals.

Deadline to send in abstracts: 10 August 2009

Notification of selection: 20 August 2009

Deadline to send in full papers: 1 October 2009

- Abstracts should be no longer than 350 words and be accompanied by a short resume/CV (max. 2 pages)
- Funds will be made available to invited speakers and to those selected speakers (from Africa, the Middle East and South/Southeast Asia) who do not have resources available to cover their travel and lodging expenses. To qualify for a grant, please submit a short letter of motivation to the given email-address
